

Sent: Saturday, 14 June 2008 4:01 PM
To: Regulatory
Subject: FTTN

To whom it may concern,

Its come to my attention that the government is looking at doing a full node change over which would kill all copper services, I watched a video about this and it is possible to keep existing copper services with a ftn network. I would like this to be the case as it would keep real competition available.

Thanks for your time.