

Sent: Sunday, 15 June 2008 6:00 PM
To: Regulatory
Subject: FTTN or NBN network

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing this email as a concerned member of the public and consumer. Having listened to various speeches about the issue and read mountains of print about the issue I have come to some conclusions.

Assigning the new network to an abhorrently powerful and anti-competitive company like Telstra will be a monumental mistake. I DO NOT TRUST SOL TRUJILLO or TELSTRA. The ROI figure of 18% they keep harping about is the beginning of the end. They want me the consumer to pay MORE for LESS so they can make HUGE profits.

The minister, Mr Conroy fails to grasp the financial black hole he is propelling our nation into by rushing this process. The one person who I completely agree with is Mr Simon Hackett from Internode. There does not need to be a complete node cutover and we do not need a new monopoly controlled by Telstra.

For goodness sake we must not be lumbered with an un-affordable mess that exists to make Mr Trujillo (share bonuses) and Telstra exceedingly rich.

Warwick Robertson