

From: Andrew Woodman
Sent: Monday, 17 March 2008 1:59 PM
To: National Broadband Network Taskforce
Subject: Make Bandwidth Affordable

Having fast Internet connections is great, but there is no point having them unless we can use them. What will you do about the current duopoly of cable connections to the US. The reason we have such restrictive download limits in Australia is those two cable companies.

Andrew Woodman
Rockhampton.

--

Long live the U in colour