

From: John Harris
Sent: Monday, 9 June 2008 9:01 AM
To: remotebroadband
Subject: ABG and FTTN submission

FTTN is bad enough - we should have ASDN on fibre cable to every house in the country - but to threaten to take away the poor-man's substitute, the ABG, is disgraceful. We'll end up in a few years time as the slowest computer communications country in the world.

John Harris