Dear Gail,

Attached is the submission to the Review of Indigenous Broadcasting by the Australian Indigenous Communications Association.

The submission was developed in a number of stages beginning with a sector forum held in the ACT on 26 April 2006 and via a number of working group teleconferences.

The AICA has been circulated widely and there is a great degree of consensus for AICA's position.

AICA has encouraged organizations and interested individuals to submitting their own views.

AICA looks forward in being involved in the next step of this review process.

Yours faithfully,

Patrick Malone
